

Native Nectar Plant List for Monarch Butterflies in Santa Cruz County

Common Name	Scientific Name	Early	Late
California buckeye	Aesculus californica	x salt marsh baccharis	Baccharis glutinosa		x coyote bush	Baccharis pilularis		x blueblossom ceonothus	Ceanothus thyrsiflorus	x sticky monkey flower	Diplacus aurantiacus	x	x
California fuschia	Epilobium canum		x
California goldenbush	Ericameria ericoides		x seaside daisy	Erigeron glaucus	x	x
Western flat topped goldenrod	Euthamia occidentalis		x gumplant	Grindelia stricta var. platyphyla		x
silver weed cinquefoil	Potentilla anserina		x
California buttercup	Ranunculus californicus	x flowering currant	Ribes sanguineum	x arroyo willow	Salix lasiolepis	x hummingbird sage	Salvia spathacea		x
California goldenrod	Solidago velutina ssp. californica		x
California hedge nettle	Stacchys bullata		x
Pacific aster	Symphotrichum chilense		x

This list contains early and late flowering native plants that can provide nectar resources for overwintering monarch butterflies in Santa Cruz County. For more information or for plants contact: info@groundswellecology.org

www.groundswellecology.org

